Dear Mr. Corwin:

Thanks very much for your letter of August 24th.

I am interested to know that you are getting communications from American citizens who see the need to make advances in human rights in the United States, as well as in the rest of the world. I receive a number of these letters too, read them, and pass them through my office so that we stay mindful of what it is we are doing and how people are reacting. Then I send them to the Domestic Policy Council at the White House.

Thanks again for passing this along.

Sincerely,

Patricia M. Derian
Assistant Secretary for
Human Rights and
Humanitarian Affairs
